The Einhell TC-SB 200/1 bandsaw is an ideal basic machine for the ambitious hobby DIY enthusiast. The height adjuster is not just for performing precise cuts. Adjusted to the ideal working height of the user, the height adjuster also ensures that the user can work in safety. The multi-positional adjustable saw blade stabilizer reduces blade vibration. In addition the saw blade guard is height-adjustable. The supplied push stick is indispensable for working in safety on the bandsaw. The saw table is infinitely tiltable, so it even handles tricky miter cuts. The parallel stop and the ball-bearing guide are a big help to the hobby DIY enthusiast when performing straight and precise cuts.
